

Moor Meadows

How about developing a wildflower rich habitat in your garden this year?

It may feel chilly right now but if like us you have already begun to think about your garden in 2021 you may be interested in the 'Moor Meadows' website.

<https://moormeadows.org.uk>

There are many ideas about how best to create a rich habitat for pollinators, case studies from individuals who live on or near Dartmoor and a map of those keen wildlife gardeners celebrating the wonderful diversity of native plants who have registered their wildlife meadows.